'High Ski Divers' Featured Among Attractions at Fair

A large scale equivalent of the daredevil high diver who leaps from a 110-foot tower into a six foot water tank has proved to be one of the most popular attractions at Century 21, Seattle's World's Fair.

A dozen ace water skiers are the daredevils, and their tank is a 26-foot wide concrete circuit within the Century 21 stadium. On this narrow waterway the water skiers perform acts of bravado up to now reserved for the expanses of lakes and rivers.

Skiers leap, singly, in pairs and in foursomes, from the waxed and wetted ski-jump ramp. Others "ski" the 980-foot circuit on the soles of their bare feet—at 33 miles an hour. Mercury outboard motors power 14-foot runabouts down the straightaway, over the

Tordondo Beavers Take Two Games; Aguilar, Miller Perform at Mound

The Tordondo Anza Hardware Beavers continued their winning ways by racking up two victories July 22. The first team they racked up was the Herborn's Wheel Alignment Cards to the tune of 15 to 1.

Eddie Aguilar, the winning pitcher, allowed only three hits, four walks and struck out eight in this performance. Allan Wattles was calling the pitches as his catcher, John Leake, going two for four, and Jim Greenman, with a double, were the big batting guns for the winners.

The Beavers' second victory was a 10 to 5 win over the Angels. Eddie Miller made his pitching debut in this one and went the distance as the winning pitcher. He had eight strikeouts along the way. Johnny Leake again was the big bat for the Beavers, going two for three in this one.

The Sleep E-Z Padres again came out on top. Steve Voisin had the right prescription, 12 strikeouts, to gain his seventh victory, with no defeats, over the Sav-On Drug Phillies. The score was 15 to 5.

Athletics Beat Cards 15 to 1

Behind the three-hit pitching of Ron Collie, the Tordondo Athletics beat the Herborn's Wheel Alignment Cards 15 to 1. The Athletic batters boomed out 13 hits, Kenny Walker was the other half of the winning battery.

The Sleep E-Z Padres took on one of their main opponents to a possible minor championship, the Donsker Realty Pirates. The final outcome was Padres 19, Pirates 3.

Wayne Larson gained his eighth victory while getting this win. He allowed three hits while striking out nine. He was well supported by a good hitting and fielding Padre team. His catcher, Steve Voisin, came through with four hits. Eddie Bowling contributed two doubles and a single. Larson and Dennis Phillips each had two hits.

The Sav-On Drug Phillies came into the last inning behind the Kool-Metal Awning Giants 11 to 4. They put on a last ditch do or die fight.

The final score was Phillies 12, Giants 11. The pitching staff for the Phillies was Skip Chandler who was relieved by Mark Hamilton to get the last Giant out.

Ament was the Phillie catcher until Chandler went behind the plate to catch for Hamilton.

Marty Martinez went the route as the Giant pitcher.

League Picks 16 All-Stars

The Torrance National Little League recently announced names of the 16 boys to represent the league in the all-star tournament. They were picked from a field of 90. The boys are as follows.

Dwayne Grim, Cubs, .500 average, 12 home runs; Mike Van Kralingen, Phillies, .492, 8; Charlie Curnutt, Phillies, .457, 6; Mike Branstetter, Cubs, .450, 10; Keith Olson, Cubs, .400, 0; Chuck O'Brien, Stars, .365, 3.

Others are Jadie Mosier, Cards, .360, 4; Maury Kragg, Stars, .350, 4; Billy Bradshaw, Phillies, .330, 0; John Cook, Braves, .312, 3; Ken McMullen, Cards, .290, 0; Randy Jolls, Yankees, .283, 1; Tim Venable, Yankees, .268, 0; Jim Fox, Cards, .250, 0.

Alternates chosen by the league are Mark Marquard, Braves, .312, 0; and Dennis Greenwood, Cards, .280, 0.

Of the 16 boys selected, 15 of them started as eight-year-olds on the league's training team. This year the all-star team has a pitching staff of Van Kralingen, Curnutt, Kragg, Fox and Grim. The team's manager is Jim O'Toole.

Football Contest Features Sarboe

The Sarboe clan has masterminded a lot of football victories, and if quarterback Joe Sarboe has his way there will be one more triumph added to the string in the Los Angeles Coliseum Aug. 1.

Sarboe, the classy signal-caller from Arcata High, is certain to see plenty of action when his North team meets the South in the 11th annual Shrine Football Classic, even though he is one of probably the classiest triumvirate of quarterbacks ever to perform for a single team in the history of the game.

There's a logical reason for Sarboe football know-how. He's the son of Phil Sarboe, head coach at Humboldt State and NAIA "Coach of the Year" in 1960.

Phil was a star at Washington State and played in the East-West Shrine game in 1934.

His father's ability has rubbed off on Sarboe, and then some. The 5-11, 170-pound youngster is a "thinking" quarterback. Sarboe's statistics are not as impressive as those of some other quarterbacks, but he does everything well. For example, he threw only 59 passes in eight games last year—but he completed 33 for 64.1 percent, and five of them went for touchdowns. Only two were intercepted.

In addition, he gained 241 yards net in 44 rushing attempts, a respectable 4.4 yards-per-carry average, and he scored five touchdowns himself.

But most important is his ability as a field general. Quiet, almost introverted off the field, Joe is a take-charge type.

One of Arcata's seven wins last year was a 13-0 upset of Medford, Oregon, a team that had won 24 straight games from California teams.
